

Colorado River Fair Salsa Contest Entry Form

Contest: Sunday, March 23, 2014, 4:00 pm

Come see how your salsa stacks up!
All entries are to be made from scratch. Store bought salsa is no permitted.

Each participant must submit one pint of salsa for judging.

Do you want to sample your salsa to fair attendees and be eligible to win the "Taster's Choice" Award?

Yes No
Circle one

Cook's Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Return your entry form to:

Colorado River Fair
591 N Olive Lake Blvd
Blythe, CA 92225

Rules and entry information:

Salsa is defined as any concoction containing peppers, tomatoes and other ingredients to be sampled with tortilla chips or utensils.

Salsa must be submitted no later than 2:30 pm. (one hour and a half prior to judging).

Each participant must submit one pint of salsa for judging. If you plan to sample your salsa for the Taster's Choice award, you must bring additional salsa.

The cost to participate is free with a paid admission to the Fair. Entry forms must be received by Saturday 12 noon March 22, 2014.

Contest will take place in the Bommer Theater.

Judging:

If you want to sample your salsa to fair attendees to be eligible for the Taster's Choice award, you must check in by 2:30 pm. Salsa sampling will take place from 4:00pm – 5:00pm. You will be provided with an area to do your salsa sampling from, and tortilla chips to sample with. You will need to provide any table decorations that you desire, as well as your salsa and any needed utensils. We recommend that you bring at least 2 Quarts of salsa for sampling. This is in addition to the pint of salsa that you must submit for judging by the judging panel. Salsa judging will begin promptly at 4:00pm. Salsa will be judged on 4 attributes: Presentation & Appearance, Aroma, Texture, Flavor and Taste. Entrants will be provided a non-identifying container in which entries will be judged. The decision of the judges is final and left solely to the discretion of the assigned judges.

Awards

First, second and third place winners will be given, except for Taster's Choice, which will have one first place award. Awards will be announced by 5:30. GOOD LUCK!